FREESHIPPINGON – FIND HIDDEN DEALS WITH FREE SHIPPING

Easily find specials offering free shipping on eBay and amazon.com

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (July 29, 2008) – eBay doesn't let you do it. Amazon hasn't got it either! But there is one site that specializes in bringing consumers the newest and most powerful tools for finding hidden deals! As part of its ongoing mission to save consumers both time and money, the creators of DealLocker.com, the coupon code database, announce the newest Web site to be added to the bargain-hunter's arsenal – FreeShippingOn. With skyrocketing gas prices, many online retailers are trying to pass the increased shipping costs on to the consumer. To combat this, FreeShippingOn.com was created to help consumers specifically find the items on eBay and amazon.com that offer free shipping. In addition, the site also offers a series of coupons for free shipping from over 500 other stores, such as: OfficeMax, ProFlowers, Staples, Dell, Wal-Mart, Ritz Camera, NewEgg ... to name just a few.

HOW IT WORKS

Smart Shoppers simply go to <http://www.freeshippingon.com>. Users then simply select either the amazon.com logo or the eBay logo and then, where prompted, enter the item they are interested in. Alternatively, users can simply enter a product category if they do not have a specific product name in mind. The site will automatically scour hundreds of thousands of entries to identify just those deals that offer free shipping
