TypoBuddy Wins Mashup Award for Having Innovative Content and a Whole Lot of API's that Create Fun and Cool Applications

SAN DIEGO (September 4, 2008) – TypoBuddy, was honored as the MASHUP OF THE DAY at Mashupawards.com for September 3, 2008. TypoBuddy's mashup is featured at Typo Buddy - Mashup Awards. The award is given to Web sites that have creative content and programming that produces sites that are both useful and cool for programmers who understand the backend of building a Web site.

TypoBuddy was created to be added to the bargain-hunter's arsenal. Typo Buddy searches Web Sites such as eBay and craigslist to find frequently misspelled words such as Abercrombie, Louis Vuitton and even the Wii which make these misspelled products hard or near impossible to find. This creates a window of opportunity for the savvy shopper. By using Typo Buddy, users can quickly and easily find misspelled listings for popular items, and since these hidden listings often go unnoticed buyers can save big!

Mashup Awards is a hand-picked showcase of the best web mashups with awards served on a daily and monthly basis.
